Code of Conduct

In order to provide a pleasant, safe and orderly learning environment, the enrolled student and their parent/guardian need to agree to our Code of Conduct by signing below and returning this with the registration form.

Rules of Conduct

- Attend all scheduled classes (unless excused prior to the start of classes).
- Be on time.
- Do not bring food or drink into the theatre,
- Treat Clague staff, teachers, others and the Playhouse with respect.
- Be cooperative and kind.

Students are expected to:

Follow these rules. If they do not, a verbal warning will be given on the first offense. Subsequent disregard will warrant a telephone call to the parent, and further non-compliance will mean removal from class.

Do specific exercises and/or memorize lines and movement. This is hard work and will require practice outside of the classroom.

Bring a folder for printed material, a journal and a pencil.

Parent(s)/Guardian(s) - Ensure your child understands the rules. Please respect your child's commitment to classes and have him/her at the theatre no earlier than five minutes prior to class time and picked up no later than five minutes after class ends. Help your child with memorization if needed. Thanks.

Students - Clague Playhouse teaches the basics and art of acting, including voice and movement, teamwork, trust, script interpretation, and focus. Our aim is to stimulate a child's imagination and creativity and to instill an appreciation for the theatre arts.

Please sign below to show that you and your child understand our expectations and that you agree to support them.

Thanks for your cooperation.
